Regional Training Workshops

NCCSIF and SCORE are sponsoring two regional training workshops:

Prevention Of Sexual Harassment & Abusive Conduct (AB 1825) & General Ethics Principles (AB 1234)

Topics Include:

AB 1825 requires California employers to provide at least two hours of effective training to all supervisory employees on the prevention of sexual harassment, discrimination, retaliation, and prevention of abusive conduct. This training is required every two years.

AB 1234 requires “covered officials” to take two hours of training in ethics principles every two years.

Date and Time:

Thursday, March 11, 2021

AB 1825 \(Sexual Harassment\) 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

AB 1234 \(Ethics\) 1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Trainer

Gerry Preciado, from 34th Street Consulting will be conducting the training. Gerry has more than 25 years of employment practice expertise. Using his dynamic, personal and non-legal approach to connecting with groups, he educates and engages his audiences on this vital topic. Many of our NCCSIF and SCORE members have attended Gerry’s training in the past, and he has received glowing reviews.
